About Peak Performance Running

Peak Performance Running was started in 2017 with a mission to foster a lifelong love of running. We train year-round on the trails, track, and roads and in the gym serving athletes ages 8-18 in the Golden, Colorado area. We are committed to supporting athletes of all abilities with an interest in running. We host all comer track meets, host summer running camps throughout the summer and clinics.

At Peak our core values guide every decision we make. These values shape how our coaches lead athletes, how athletes interact with each other and our business strategy.

Ownership- We take responsibility for our actions. We hold each other accountable for the goals we set for ourselves.

Comradery- The community is what makes this team. We live for the daily moments that make up the training journey.

Gratitude- We trade expectations for appreciation. Show appreciation for the competition, officials, coaches, and teammates and all they have taught you.

Excellence- It's how you pursue your passion and what you strive to achieve in every session you lace up.

Curiosity- We seek out knowledge and opportunities. Each workout is an opportunity to test our limits and see what we are truly capable of.
